important industries in the Jails here viz, Weaving, Carpet-making, carpentry &c A fireman having a complete knowledge and training in all the industries is difficult to secure and such an one has not been appointed even in the British Indian Jails. A maistry or maistri for each industry has been appointed in the British Indian Jails, and similarly in the Bangalore Central Jail, there is a maistry for each of the industries. The pay and prospects of the maistries in the Jails here do not appear to compare unfavorably.

* with the pay prospects of the maistries in British India

If approved, some maistries may have to be appointed for the respective Jails to improve the industries there and bring them into a line with those in Bangalore. Further when machinery is introduced, there will be a necessity to appoint a fireman or skilled Block attendant. In British India, the Jailor is expected to supervise the manufactures industries in the Jail and it is his duty has practically to improve the manufactures of the Jails, under the control of the Superintendent.

SIR,

In reply to your letter No.J.3980/Pris.59-16-1 dated 9th May 1917, asking me to furnish Government with my opinion in the matter of the appointment of a foreman for the development of the industries in the two Jails of the State, I have the honor to state that the appointment of foremen for improving industries in the Jails of the State has been a long felt want I would therefore suggest that two men, one for the Bangalore Central Jail and the other for the Mysore Jail may be selected instead of only one for both the Jails as has been contemplated by Government.

2. Further, I have to state that the men thus selected should, besides possessing the technical qualifications and knowledge in various kinds of industries, be well conversant with the accounts relating thereto.

SIR,

In reply to your letter No.J.4184/Pris. 59-16-3 dated 22nd May 1917 requesting certain particulars in connection with the appointment of foremen for the development of industries in the Jails of the State, I have the honor to report as follows :-

2. The qualifications required of the men to be employed as foremen are :- (a) Practical training to the full extent in the following industries :-

(1) Weaving of all kinds(including carpets and cumblies)

(2) Carpentry,(including Rattan work)

(3) Smithery, and

(4) Dyeing.

(b) Besides these, they should be well acquainted with accounts; should possess a thorough knowledge of Kanarese; and should be able to successfully teach prisoners in the various branches of industries. The amount of pay that may be given them depends onl on the extent of their qualifications. The appointment, for the present, be made only for a fixed period Viz. about ten years.

3. In this connection, I addressed the Inspectors-Generals of Prisons, Madras, Bombay, and the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh. I enclose herein copies of their replies together with their enclosures for favour of perusal. From their replies, it can be gathered that there are no general foremen to supervise all the industries in any Jail either in Madras, or Bombay or in the United Provinces. The Jailors are, under the Superintendent responsible for the correct and efficient management of the industries, as in our Jails. In the Madras Presidency, each branch of industries has a foreman as we have maistries in our Jails. In the Central Jail at Vellore, the foreman of each industry draws a higher pay (ranging from Rs.75 to 150) than any maistry in the Jails of this State. In Bombay, there is only one foreman in the Jail at Sabarmati, who is a master tailor and who draws a pay of Rs.40/-. In the United Provinces, there is no factory official appointed separately in any Jail.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector-General of Prisons.

Letter No.4000, Ootacamund dated the 16th June 1917 from the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras, to the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Bangalore.

With reference to your letter No.795-7/127-07 dated the 25th May/9th June 1917, I have the honor to forward herewith two statements showing the Manufactory Establishemnts of Jails in the Madras Presidency. The appointments of those on pay not exceeding Rs.30/- a month are sanctioned by me renewing the sanction every year and those on higher pay than Rs.30/- by Government. Vide Rule973(1) Jail Manual.

2. These establishments are entertained permanently but they are not pensionable.

3. It is part of Jailor's duties to supervise the Manufactory Departments of the Jails and the Manufactory Establishment works under his supervision except in the Coimbatore Jail where the Weaving Master is responsible for the work in the weaving shed.

In reply to your letter No. J. 475/ Pris 59-16-7 date the 11th August 1917, asking for my specific suggestions i the matter of appointing foremen for the development of In dustries in the Jails, I have the honor to state that as - candidates possessing all the qualifications specified in para 2 of my letter No. 999/ 127-07 dated the 3rd July 191 cannot possibly be found for the posts, I suggest, to meet the object in view, the revision of the Establishment of t Maistries or Work Instructors now employed in the Jails, a designating them as foremen to the respective Industries - under their charge, as it is in some of the British India Jails.

2. These Foremen are to be made responsible for the development of the Industries under their charge and their prospects should be regulated by the improvement and profitable working of the concern.

3. I have herewith sent for favour of obtaining sanc tion of Government, a proposition statement showing the pr posed revision of the Establishment of the Work Instructor ıe extra cost being very small, can be met from the general avings of the Department by re-appropriation.

4. I also suggest that the prospects of the Superintendents of Jails, should be regulated not only by their efficient administration; but also by the development of the Industries in the Jails.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Prisons.
